ADVICE ON ARREST
Say “NO COMMENT” to all questions during casual talk, booking in, and police interviews. When you get to the police station, you may wish to give your name, address and date of birth to speed up your release. For your own safety & protection and for that of other people, don’t answer any further questions.

You have the right to FREE LEGAL ADVICE at the police station.
Duty solicitors are often not protest specialists, so we recommend you ask the police to contact one of the following law firms for FREE LEGAL ADVICE:

Birds – 0208 874 7433 / 07966 234994 (out of hours)
HJA – 0808 274 8226
ITN +0203 909 8100
Kellys – 0800 387 463

Do NOT accept a CAUTION without advice from one of the firms listed above. A caution is an admission of guilt and goes on the police national computer,

You have the right to have someone informed of your arrest. Make this the XR Back Office (unless otherwise arranged): 07706 572428

You are also entitled to an interpreter if English is not your first language.
If you are or appear to be under 18, an appropriate adult should be called.
